EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone message left by Winston Hsu on August 30th, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows: in claim 15, line 6, the phrase -- a control circuit for determining a type of optical disc by calculating a result; -- has been inserted between "disc;" and "and."

In line 16, "a result" has been changed to -- the result --

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1:

The closest prior art of record, Kumagai (JP Publication Number 11-149640; see machine translation) discloses:

A method for distinguishing the type of optical disc in an optical disc apparatus, the optical disc apparatus comprising a laser, a focusing lens, and a sensor for generating a signal corresponding to laser emitted light reflected from the optical disc (drawing 1), the method comprising:

emitting light from the laser to the optical disc (paragraph 20);

Art Unit: 2627

moving the focusing lens such that a focal point of the focused light emitted from the laser moves through the optical disc at substantially constant velocity (paragraph 23);

while the lens is moving, measuring a first duration (Drawing 7G: Tfs);

while the lens is moving, measuring a second duration (Drawing 7D: T_{hs}) between a first predetermined location in a generated signal (front edge of 107) and a second predetermined location in the generated signal when the generated signal exceeds a second predefined threshold (front edge of 108), the second predefined threshold indicating that the focal point of the focused emitted light is within a second layer of the optical disc (clear from Fig. 7A);

distinguishing the type of optical disc according to the first duration and the second duration (paragraph 44-45).

However, Kamagai does not disclose wherein the first duration is a first duration that the generated signal exceeds a first predefined threshold, the first predefined threshold indicating that the focal point of the focused emitted light is within a first layer of the optical disc; and wherein the second duration is between a first predetermined location in the generated signal during the first duration.

These elements in combination with the other elements of the claim render it allowable over the prior art of record.

Regarding claim 9:

It contains language similar to that of claim 1.

Regarding claim 15:

Art Unit: 2627

It is an apparatus claim corresponding to the method claim of claim 1.

Regarding claims 2-8, 10-14, and 16-19:

They are dependent on claims 1, 9, and 15 respectively.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
